THE MORMON CHURCH.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 11, 1865

Mormon Persecution.

The introduction and establishment of all new systems, more or less of the element of opposition has necessarily to be encountered. This is in the very nature of things. When men become accustomed to a stated policy, and its effects are profitably or pleasureably interwoven with their associations and surroundings, it is but natural that they will oppose the introduction of another policy designed to overturn it.

There are always progressive minds in advance of the period in which they live. This is exemplified in the history of every age. But such have ever been the subjects of hate, envy, detraction and persecution. The most elevating and enabling of all doctrines cost the blood of their "Great High Priest," the meek and holy Jesus. The venerable exponents of the Christian faith in its pristine purity, gave their bodies a sacrifice to the fleshly malignancy of Christianity's foes. The enunciation of some of the most profound and subtle truths of philosophical and scientific research, involved their discoverers in distress, their converts in suffering and misery.

The introduction of a new theory, whether religious, political, or scientific, is invariably attended with more or less of difficulty; and as it meets and comes with older and more generally received theories, its advocates not unfrequently suffer personal abuse from the bigoted and ignorant. It was so with Mormonism and its advocates. It combatted the doctrines of ages, and, in the contest, its disciples were made the subjects of many wrongs. Catholicism and the leading sects of Protestantism have each had their days of sorrow and of glory too. The Catholic "Lives of the Saints" and the Catholic and Protestant "Book of Martyrs" contain many harrowing descriptions of sufferings inflicted by the heathen upon the early Christians of the Catholic Church, and by each party upon the other,—infusions which the enlightened members of both the Catholic and Protestant Churches of to day alike denounce, as the fruits of a policy suicidal to the cause of those who adopted it. True it is that the present is a far more enlightened age than any in which the scenes of blood here referred to took place; and true also that in proportion to the superiority of the enlightenment of the present age compared with those, should an increased portion of the spirit of Christian charity possess our hearts, and enlarged and liberal sentiments prompt our actions.

Our Brighamite friends point to the persecutions they have endured, and telling us they were imposed upon them for their religion's sake, ask us "Where is your boasted enlightenment and christian liberality?" Could we for one moment suppose that their sufferings were but chiefly—will not say entirely—the result of an unchristian spirit of religious intolerance, we should deprecate the deeds of blood and loss of property to which they have been subjected as strongly as they, themselves, do; but surrounding circumstances; the evidences of deep guill on their part, our own eyes have seen; the unimpeached testimony of reliable gentlemen familiar with their history; and last, but not least, the acknowledgement of one of their own leaders as found in this article, forbid our entertaining the supposition.

But while we deny the absence of guilt on the part of the Mormons, we yet regret the perpetration of many crimes committed against them and against the law of the land, prior to and at the time of their expulsion from the homes their hands had made. But the fierce passions of ignorant men, though perhaps, somewhat modified, or restrained by the controlling influences of an enlightened civilization, are, in their normal state, and where such influences can exert but a very limited power over them, yet but too aptly illustrative of what men were in the dark ages, when, instead of reason and law, the battle-axe, sword, on spear, were the only arbitrators employed to settle disputes, or vindicate honor.

Yet though the unrestrained exercise of the passions is to be condemned, their existence cannot be dispensed with, so long as conflicting elements distract social joys, or give force and character to contending societary influences. The Mormons are entirely wrong in ascribing in to the baseness of human passions all the opposition manifested towards them.

Men may oppose a truth under a conviction that they are opposing error, or their opposition may be inspired by other and less worthy convictions. But whether they oppose it conscientiously, as an error it were desirable to eradicate, or unworthy, as a truth they fear; it forms a link in the great chain of eternal principles, and though it may be roughly handled, it will, like the fine gold, be but the brighter for the using. An error, too, may be opposed for its palpable absurdity.

They are equally wrong in condemning that opposition, and ascribing it to those being "The children of God" and their opponents "The children of the Evil One." The simple fact that a theory is opposed, furnishes no evidence of either its truth or its falsity. These can be tested only by the records of inspiration and the lamp of experience.

the agents sent by the inhabitants of the "Salt Land," to convince their followers that they are the special favorites of the Supreme Ruler, because they "are persecuted of men," are preposterously absurd. If inverted hate and bloody persecution are such favorable evidences as they teach, the Catholics and Protestants of England, the Huguenots of France, and the Lutherans of Germany have all a prior and higher claim. These societies have stood, more or less, on the strength of their own acknowledged merits—Brigham's Church must do the same, or fall.

The "persecutions" of the Mormons differ from those of the parties named; in this that while, generally speaking, they suffered for their religion alone, the Mormons suffered to a great extent for their crimes. Read the following acknowledgement from the mouth of the great man "Heber," delivered Aug. 21st, 1856. "I acknowledge, openly and above-board, that ALL THE PERSECUTIONS THIS CHURCH HAS UNDERWENT, HAVE BEEN BROUGHT UPON IT THROUGH THE INQUIRY OF IT'S ELDER AND IT'S MEMBERS." A more definite statement could not be desired; but it is one that weakens our sympathy for the suffering ones.

But we trust the day of religious persecution will soon have become among the things that were, but are not. We care not how soon Utah, however, will probably have persecution on her tongue, and her finger pointed to its progress, when none but Utonians will be able to see anything but the operations of fate.

We have expressed an aversion to religious persecution; but we deny that the arrest and punishment of the guilty wretches who claim to be religious leaders, are daily breakers of the law, whose hands are stained with blood, in whose houses are the ungodly gains wrung from the poor, who wear the chronicles of time taken from the MURDERED EMIGRANT, whose children are taught to play on the piano of a once-lovely but now ASSASSINATED YOUNG LADY, whose women go to balls and parties decorated w/ the SILKS and JEWELRY abstracted from the BOXES of the UNFORTUNATE LADIES MASSACRED BY THEIR HUSBANDS in the Mountain Meadows, who are laden with crimes of every character that, if exposed, would leave them to the mercy of Heaven alone, for men could have none—we deny that to punish such as these would be a religious persecution and therefore hope to see the law vindicated, the honor of the tender government sustained, the blood of the murdered avenged, and the crimes of the guilty expiated by a just atonement. "A desperate disease must have a desperate cure."

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VERDICT.]

New York, Sept. 8th.
The Meteor from New Orleans, with dates of the 1st. Papers contain the following: Gov. Hamilton has ordered the necessary steps to call a convention.

Ex-Governor Murray, of Texas, died at Monterey, Aug. 14th.

Houston papers are filled with notices of robberies and burglaries by a band of desperadoes operating extensively in Galito county. A wagon train was captured containing merchandise valued at $30,000.

Indians come within 30 miles of Austin, and higher up, are murdering men, women and children, indiscriminately. The cotton crop is seriously injured by worms.

Judge Bennett, the first President of the Republic of Texas, has consented to go to Washington, to make an appeal in behalf of Jeff Davis. The request was made by men, nearly all of whom struggled for the independence of Texas.

Houston in a letter to the True Delta says, the opening of the port of Galveston has given vigor and life to every branch of trade; all the troops except the Provost Guard of three hundred, have left the city.

Governor Hamilton's appointments give general satisfaction, and a year of exemplified prosperity for the State is looked for.

Nashville, 8th.
An explosion to-day on the Northwestern Railroad. A train of about eight cars and one passenger coach. There were nearly two hundred aboard; the foremost car contained powder, shot and shell, and it is supposed that sparks from the locomotive communicated through the cracks in the car, causing the explosion. Seven persons were killed and nearly all more or less injured. The cars were all blown to pieces, except two in the rear. The engine was totally wrecked. The concussion was terrific and shook the buildings in town like an earthquake.

The Freedmen give some trouble by violating their contracts and leaving the Planters at the commencement of the picking season. The Mobile Tribune says, the town of Marietta is still one mass of ruins; the greater part of those who dwelt there in happiness, are now homeless and almost hopeless. So it is with the entire country from Atlanta to Chattanooga. A Macon, Ga. correspondent of the Augusta Transcript says, judging from the number taking the amnesty oath in that country, nearly the usual vote will be polled at the coming election. Nearly all the white troops are removed from Macon city, which is comparatively quiet.

Omaha, Sept. 8th.
The Overland Telegraph Line to California is in excellent working order. No Indians on the route and no further troubles from that source are anticipated. News is expected of a battle between Gen'l Connor's forces and the Indians, on, or, near Big Horn River, a branch of the Yellowstone.

New York, Sept. 8th.
The passenger train which left Philadelphia yesterday morning, collided with a freight train from New York, on the Camden and Amboy railroad, and several persons were badly injured.

Boston, Sept. 8th.
Ex Gov. John Page died this a.m. at his residence at Haverhill, N. H.

New York, 8th.
New Orleans papers contain Mexican advice, stating, that all refugees from Texas and other states who have taken their abode in Mexico, except seventeen, are ordered to leave Monterrey, have disengaged themselves in San Luis Potosi, or further in the interior. This is done by an Imperial decree.

Military operations are to be resumed against the liberators in Durango and Sonora, as soon as the rainy season is over.

Preparations for the France and Mexican expedition in Lower California is progressing.

New York, 8th.
The Grand Jury which came into court in general sessions to day, presented twelve indictments against Ketchum, charging him with larceny and forgery. Ketchum will soon be called upon to plead to the charges.

The first National Bank on the Pacific, will be authorized for Portland, Oregon.

The Costa Rica paper, Aspinwall the 31st, brings $938,000 in specie. Much needless excitement has prevailed at Panama, concerning the revolutionary movements in the interior, which appears to result in nothing at present.

The Government party may be overthrown, but there is no danger of an outbreak in the city, both appear afraid to fight. Some excitement has been caused, by the Government appropriating two American vessels for the transportation of the American Consul, who had blundered into giving them papers to trade on the coast, when they had no right to such documents.

The steamer "Ariel" arrived with troops for San Francisco, on the 25th. The conduct of the troops on landing, was disgraceful. The S. R. Paulding, also arrived with troops on the 30th from Central America.

The only important item is that Genl. Ex President of Salvador, is on trial with the likelihood of being convicted and shot in violation of an agreement, to not take his life, but to be given up to the authorities of Nicaragua.

A letter from President Johnson, sustaining provisional Gov. Sharkey in his call for the organization of militia in the State and setting aside Gen. Slocum's order, forbidding such organizations is published. The President's main reason is, to induce the people to come forward in defense of the State and the Federal Government. He says if there is any more of an insurrectionary character by such organizing, the military will be there to suppress it upon its first appearance.

The Steamer Adel, has arrived from Aspinwall with the same date as were received per the Costa Rica. She carried cut troops for California.

The T. M. says it learns from Carreras, that H. E. D. Culver, our Minister, has obtained from the Venezuela Government a convention for the settlement of all American claims. The Government by this means, has obtained ten years for the payment, except in some cases of trivial amounts, which are to be arranged forthwith. General Falcon, head of affairs, remains constantly at the Capitol. The season thus far has been unusually good. Crops are very full of Coffee, Cocoa and sugar.

The World's correspondent from Dublin, Ireland, says, permission is at last granted, where it can do the most good, or, evil agents have been in Ireland and in a very short space of time, have created the most terrible excitement, not only here, but through the entire Kingdom. The greatest alarm prevails among the priesthood, a majority of whom though opposed to English rule, denounce from the pulpit the Feudal Brotherhood. The secret of their opposition lies in the fact, that the Order alternates people from the priesthood. They favor any movement against England, either moral, or, provisional, but it must, they say, originate with them, and be guided by them. We now hear of drilling all over the country and in some places in squads, and in others in entire regiments. The lazy constabulary has had a very hard time of it, as late the authorities in many instances have sent them out reconnoitering, where the Fenians are drilling. They are kept constantly on the march but its seldom they meet with their enemy. The young men in various parts of Dublin clubbed together and subscribed money and as they cannot go into the country and encamp, therefore for several days, they have hired halls where they are taught in military drill. The constabulary here, are aware of these secret assemblies, but either dare, or, will not interfere. Our friends in the United States may look forward for some practical work shortly.

New York, Sept. 9th.
Savannah correspondence of the 7th, contains an account of the murder of Capt. Husband, of the 33rd U. S. colored troops, at Augusta, on the night of the 6th, by three young men, members of the most respectable families in that place. It appears, the Captain was discovered in company with a mulatto girl, who was the mistress of one of the young men. They attacked him with revolvers, one of the shots penetrating the neck, proving mortal. Not satisfied with this, they fell on his prostrate body, inflicting several ghastly wounds with knives. The affair caused such excitement that there was danger of a riot. Threats were made of burning the city. The murderers were arrested and quiet restored.

Fort Smith, Ark., Sept. 11th.
Replies were made to day by the delegations present to the propositions presented them on Saturday. All speak favorably of the policy of the Government and appear anxious to renew friendly relations with it. Many promise their aid in bringing the hostile Indians of the plains to terms. Messengers who arrived to day from the council in session at Armstrong, held by the Cherokee and Choctaw, state that their delegation will arrive on Friday.

Fort Smith, Ark., Sept. 11th.
Indian council was taken up in reading of stipulations to be improved upon in the treaties of the South-west. Stipulations of whose grand consolidation, all tribes will be into one, the locality of which shall be the present Indian territory, and such others as the Government may decide upon. The tribes now living in Kansas, are to be removed. The South and South-western tribes, will be expected to compel the Indians of the plains to observe treaties. The Indians here, say they understand they were called to meet the late rebel tribes and renew friendly relations with them and not to make new treaties with the whites and they are unwilling to do so. Portions of the loyal tribes are now here and others are expected soon.

To Our READERS.—In our Editorial of yesterday, we referred to the election of Capt. Hooper as a probable future event, whereas the event is past, and the Captain elected. We omitted to notice this error, and the type was "set up"; but as we did not happen to have a copy of the organ announcing the event on hand, and such matters are so little noticed abroad here, our readers will please overlook the error.

LATING THE CORNER STONE.—Manager Potter informs us that the corner stone of the new Dramatic and Public Hall, as announced in prospectus lately, will be laid here-to-day, with "appropriate honors." We are glad to hear that this public benefit to citizens, and to strangers coming here, has met with such success. Hope it will have still further encouragement from our more able and enterprising citizens.

The New Lawyer.—See corrected card of Messrs. Jackson & Chapin, in to-day's issue. In yesterday's, by mistake, the name of his Colorado partner, Mr. Col. Chapin, was omitted. Since leaving Salt Lake City, just about six hundred miles east of Virginia, the division-agents of the Overland Mail Company have vied with each other in their endeavors to "put us through" in the shortest possible time. Mr. McComb gave Mr. Colfax and his party a capital specimen of Western staging, making something over two hundred miles, half way to Austin, in less than thirty hours, and Mr. Wines, of Austin, beat his time—bringing us through the four hundred miles in two days and three hours. Mr. W. L. Lawrence, agent of the Company, was with us from Austin, and he distanced all his associates, for he brought us through the last two hundred miles in twenty-four hours and a quarter.

United States
7.30 LOAN.
Third Series.
$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the use of the State Comptroller, do hereby publish the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent, interest per annum, known as the

7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

J. S. 5.30 Six per Cent.

Gold bearing Bonds.

The Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent, per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The Interest at 7.30 per cent, amounts to:

One cent per day on a $50 note.

Two cents per day on a $100 note.

Ten cents " " " $500 "

Twenty cents " " " $1,000 "

One Dollar " " " $5,000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven Thirteen Years, and the existing Gold bearing Bonds, and are entitled to the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent, instead of 7.3-10 in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency on July 15th, at the time when the sum is paid.

The option of the notes of this third series of the seven-thirteen will commence on the first of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rates.

The return to specific payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be available, so to reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent, in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent, in currency.

This is the only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it

Great popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market.

This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed,

will all be subscribed for within sixty days.

With the money so easily obtained a premium

as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking up the Loan, the National Bank of the United States, and all Banks throughout the country, have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par.

Subscribers will select their own agents,

in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive them.
